

Berkeley Mardi Gras TODAY!

Unpermitted and Proud – a 15-year tradition.

GLOBAL WARMING THEME:

COMMUTING THE DEATH SENTENCE OF GLOBAL WARMING

Excellent Photo and Interview Opportunity

EVERY FLOAT IS A POLITICAL CARTOON

Is this what Gore meant when he said RESCUE THE FROG?

Costumes, Characters, Carbon Sequestration

Music and dancing at every turn. Come in Costume..take the day off; it's a religious holiday and Reverend Jim is offering faith healings if you need to call in sick.

Detailed schedule:¹

Sunrise: Top of Derby Creek
(Claremont Open Space)

NOON: Ho Chi Willard Park
(Derby & Hillegass)

2:30 PM: People's Park (Food Not Bombs serves food)
(Dwight & Hillegass)

4:00 PM: Farmer's Market
(Derby & Milvia)

4:30 PM: Spiral Gardens
(Oregon and Sacramento, what a combo!)

SUNSET: Ashby BART
(Ashby & Adeline)

And beyond...

WeAr YoUr CoStUmE

- Roving bands through Berkeley are already under way!
- Best opportunities for catching the parade are noon to 3 and then after lunch from 4 PM on, when the group will likely take Telegraph and Downtown Berkeley before heading south to the Farmer's Market.
- Floats this year lampoon the big business of false climate change reversal.
- Some are mourning the New Orleans tragedy still: Global Warming again, and industry and George Bush are culpable.

Contact: Jamboliño Extôjo for ongoing reports of where the group be at. (510) 725-9991.

Website: <http://www.berkeleymardigras.org/>

¹ Do not be amazed if the meandering minstrels of Mardi Gras diverge from their rocket lily pads and land later than listed. P.S. Yes, this is Fat Tuesday, February 20, 2007, in New Orleans as well, baybee. GIVING NEW MEANING TO THE PHRASE, "FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE."